

IMBA CANADA IS COMING TO YOUR AREA!

Join IMBA Canada's Trail Care Crew, Chad and Deanne Lazaruk, to learn how to design, build and maintain trails in a sustainable way. The free IMBA Trailbuilding School is being hosted by the Swift Current Cycling Club and Grasslands National Park of Canada, with support from the Swift Current Museum. Go to imbacanada.com/tcc for more info.

SATURDAY MAY 14

Come take part in an IMBA Trail Building School!

Classroom session from 9 a.m. - noon, at the Swift Current Museum, 44 Robert St. West. Afternoon trail building off site (1 - 4 p.m.).

Volunteers should come prepared with a brown bag lunch, snacks, water, long pants, gloves & closed toe shoes. Tools for trail work will be provided.

Bring your bike, or hike the trail you just built following the Trail Building School!
